Location

Situated just north of the town's common, on a prominent corner position of Mount Ephraim and Culverden Street, and directly fronting the A26. The property adjoins another retail premises with a parade of shops opposite. The George PH is located on the other side of Culverden Street.

Description

The property is arranged over lower ground, ground and two upper floors and was originally two separate self-contained buildings. The ground floor comprises a former estate agency office with a WC. The lower ground is generally used for storage, although with potential to convert to further commercial or residential space (subject to all necessary planning consents). There is an integral staircase serving the first and second (roof space) floors comprising 4 separate offices, a further WC, tea point, and ample eaves storage. The staircase is accessible from Culverden Street, allowing self-containment of both the upper parts and the lower ground floor.
