Location

Cheltenham House is situated in a central position on Mount Pleasant Road and in front of Calverley Park. Mount Pleasant Road has a wide range of retail and leisure facilities close at hand, and the main line train station is within a minutes' walk, providing a frequent direct service to London Stations - London Bridge, Waterloo East, Cannon Street and Charing Cross, with a typical journey time of around 50 minutes. There is covered public parking available at The Great Hall car park, again within a minutes' walk. Annual season tickets are also available on both Mount Pleasant Avenue (immediately to the rear of the building) and for The Great Hall car park – subject to availability – further details on request.

Description

A distinctive period building offering newly refurbished offices over 1st & 2nd floors, approached through a spacious reception hall. There are two suites on the first floor and a further three suites on the second. Each suite is open plan and self-contained. There is a new fully fitted communal kitchen on the 1st floor, and separate ladies & gents WCs on the 2nd.

These offices have been fully rewired along with the installation of a perimeter trunking system with ample double electric sockets, and wired voice & data points. There are new ceiling mounted LED lighting units throughout. Each suite also has a dedicated colour video door entry system.
